

New Horizons
Academy Trust

Seaside's Geography Vision

‘We believe that through Geography our children will be curious to learn about the amazing world that surrounds them, both physical and human. In doing so, we aim to provide them with the tools to take on an active role in engaging with and protecting this world that they grow up in. We enjoy learning about and celebrating the variety of different cultures that make up our school.’